PRESIDENT

W.C. (Bill)
Hay

On May 16, 1991, W.C. (Bill) Hay was named President and Alternate Governor of the Calgary Flames. In his position as President, Bill is responsible for the entire business operations of the organization.

Bill is no newcomer to the game of hockey, the NHL or the business world. He has had many years of success in all areas; Chicago Blackhawks, Hockey Hall of Fame, Hockey Canada, Saddledome Foundation and Bow Valley Industries of Calgary.

Prior to his appointment as President of the Calgary Flames, Hay served one year (1990-91) as President and Chief Operating Officer of Hockey Canada.

A native of Saskatoon, Sask., the big red head is well known for his illustrious career in the National Hockey League with the Chicago Blackhawks. For eight seasons, he centred the Million Dollar line of Bobby Hull and Murray Balfour. He recorded 386 points (113-273-386) in 506 career games and followed with 36 points (15-21-36) in 67 career playoff games. He captured the Calder Trophy as the NHL's top rookie following the 1959-60 season with 55 points (18-37-55) in 70 games. He was also a member of the Blackhawks 1960-61 Stanley Cup winning team, the last time a Chicago team has captured the NHL championship.

Bill became the first player ever to play regularly in the NHL after obtaining a U.S. college degree. A graduate of Colorado College in 1958 (Bachelor of Science - Geology), He retired from the NHL in 1967 to pursue a business opportunity with Bow Valley Industries of Calgary. He served as Senior Vice-President from 1981 to 1990.

Hay, 57, has served as Chairman of Hockey Canada's Development Committee and Chairman of the Saddledome Foundation. In 1985, he created the International Hockey Centre of Excellence, currently housed at the Olympic Saddledome in Calgary. He was also a member of Hockey Canada's International Committee from 1982 to 1990 and inducted into the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame in 1992.

In addition to involvement with the National Hockey League and the international hockey arena, he is associated with a number of community organizations. He is currently a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee and the Special Olympics Advisory Board.

Bill and his wife Nancy have two married daughters, Pam and Penny, and one son, Donald. The Hays reside year-round in Calgary.

HONORARY DIRECTOR: THE HONORABLE PETER LOUGHEED, P.C., C.C., Q.C.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

In the short space of 13 years, the Calgary Flames have become one of the premier franchises in the NHL -- on and off the ice. Won first Stanley Cup (1988-89); two Presidents' Trophies, first overall, (1987-88, 1988-89); two Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985-86, 1988-89); three season and two Smythe Division playoff championships; and several NHL individual and team honors; and numerous attendance records.

On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they moved from The Omni (capacity 15,141) to the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). The Flames exchanged their fiery "A" to an explosive-looking "C".

Calgary's and the Flames' first ever NHL game, in the Corral, was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including a thrilling win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

The Calgary Flames, who are in their 14th NHL season and tenth in the Olympic Saddledome, are performing in the best entertainment facility in North America. The Saddledome now seats 20,230 for hockey. This state-of-the-art facility opened Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983; Edmonton edged the Flames 4-3.

The history of the Flames' began when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, were granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. In the first game at The Omni the Flames and Buffalo Sabres played to a 1-1 tie. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Whereas the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at by a contest in Atlanta to choose the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest. Ownership of the Flames then consisted exclusively of six Calgary business people until June 15, 1990 when Norman Green left the Flames to become owner of the Minnesota (now Dallas) Stars.

SADDLEDOME FOUNDATION

When the state-of-the art Olympic Saddledome opened in the fall of 1983, a life long legacy was established by the Flames ownership through the Saddledome Foundation.

The Foundation's mandate was to support the Calgary community as well as national amateur sport programs. To that end, a portion of revenues from each Calgary Flames home game was to be used for the development of amateur sports. The Foundation receives their revenues from a percentage of box seat sales and concessions at Saddledome events. The Flames, as the major tenant, contribute nearly 75% of all revenues that accrue to the Saddledome Foundation.

The Saddledome Foundation, through the Saddledome Amateur Sports Fund distributes these funds equally amongst three groups; the Calgary Parks Foundation, Hockey Canada and the Calgary Olympic Development Association (CODA). Each has a separate purpose and mandate in utilizing these funds. The Parks Foundation distributes funds to amateur sports groups throughout Calgary, to assist with sports facility improvements. Hockey Canada uses their funds for research and development projects, which enhance the game of hockey at all levels. CODA utilizes the funds they receive to support Canadian amateur athletes for training in Winter Olympic sports, and ultimately their competition at International and Olympic events.

Through the strong fan support the Calgary Flames continue to receive, the team has helped generate $18 million dollars in the 10 years the Saddledome has been in operation. Of that, the Saddledome Amateur Sports Fund has received $9 million dollars, which has been divided equally amongst its 3 sporting groups. The remaining $9 million dollars has gone into a Taxpayer Protection fund to assist with any major improvements the Saddledome will require in the future.

The Calgary Flames are proud of their contribution to the Saddledome Foundation and are committed to continue this valuable role to benefit the communities of Calgary and of Southern Alberta.

VP & GENERAL MANAGER

Doug Risebrough will be entering his third season as General Manager of the Calgary Flames. He is only the second person to serve as General Manager in Flames franchise history.

As General Manager, he is responsible for all aspects of hockey operations for the club. With five new teams joining the National Hockey League in the past three years, combined with hockey soaring to new heights in the professional sporting world, the NHL has embarked upon a new era. The General Manager's position is more diversified and demanding than any time previous.

Risebrough was appointed as General Manager and Head Coach of the Flames on May 16, 1991. He relinquished the role of Head Coach on Mar. 3, 1992 to fully concentrate his energies and efforts to the responsibilities of General Manager.

The 1993-94 season will represent Risebrough's 20th year in the National Hockey League and his 12th season in the Flames organization. He played 13 seasons, starting with the Montreal organization prior to the start of the '74-75 season, joined Calgary in '82-83, and played through the '86-87 season. He appeared in 740 NHL career games, recording 471 points (185g, 286a).

His Calgary career began on Sept. 10, 1982 when he was obtained by the Flames in a trade with Montreal. One season later, Oct. 1983, he was named one of the team's two co-captains. He served as captain in four of the five seasons he played with the club.

His contribution to the game was much more than the numbers on the scoresheet. His leadership abilities and determination were evident throughout his playing days, qualities that made him a natural captain and leader.

He played on four Stanley Cup championship teams in Montreal (1976, 1977, 1978, 1979) and appeared in his fifth Cup final as a player when Calgary and Montreal faced off in the 1986 Stanley Cup final. Winning has always been a Risebrough trademark. Teams on which he has played have recorded a .660 regular season winning percentage (607-274-159).

During the 1984-85 season, Risebrough suffered a groin injury that would remain with him the rest of his career. On June 9, 1987 he announced his retirement as an active player and accepted an assistant coaching position with the Flames.

Risebrough served two seasons (1987-89) as an assistant coach. During the two years, the Flames captured two consecutive Presidents' Trophies and the 1989 Stanley Cup. It was Risebrough's fifth Stanley Cup championship.

On June 27, 1989, he was promoted to the position of Assistant General Manager. During this time, he was responsible for professional, minor-pro, and amateur scouting, as well as monitoring the progress of all players in the Flames development system.

On May 18, 1990, he became the youngest Head Coach in Flames franchise history at age 36, leading the club to a 46-26-8 record and 100 points. The team's 100 points in 1990-91 represented the third time in four seasons (1987-91) the Flames attained the 100-point plateau. His two-year coaching record stands at 71-56-17 (.552%).

Doug and his wife Marilyn have two daughters. They reside year-round in Calgary.

DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

As the Flames Director of Hockey Operations, Al MacNeil is involved in hockey-related matters at all levels.

This is MacNeil's 15th season with the Flames franchise. He served as head coach for three seasons (1979-82) and assistant general manager for seven years (1982-89), before advancing to the hockey operations area for the past four seasons.

Nothing about the game is new to this veteran hockey person. Now in his 38th season in professional hockey, he has been active, and very successful, in nearly every phase of the game, both on and off the ice.

He played 10 seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenceman with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Montreal Canadiens, Chicago Blackhawks, Pittsburgh Penguins, and the NY Rangers. In 1968 he turned to the coaching ranks with the Houston Apollos, then a farm club of Montreal's. MacNeil moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and guided Montreal to a Stanley Cup championship title that season. He was the 12th coach in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup in his rookie season. The Flames 1989 Stanley Cup victory gave MacNeil his fourth Stanley Cup ring.

MacNeil was named GM-Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs (AHL) prior to the start of the 1971-72 season. In six seasons with Montreal's top farm club, he coached the Voyageurs to four first-place finishes and three Calder Cup championships. He also served as an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup tournaments.

MacNeil was named head coach of the Flames in 1979, a position he held for three seasons. He was behind the bench when the Flames arrived in Calgary in 1980. During his first season in Calgary, he led the Flames to the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

His four-year NHL coaching record stands at 134-108-53 (.544%) in 295 career games.

On Sept. 12, 1982 he officially left the coaching ranks to work in the hockey management area.

Al, his wife Norma, and two children reside in Calgary year-round.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Al Coates will begin his second season as the Flames Assistant General Manager, having being promoted to the position on Sept. 8, 1991. He moved into his current capacity after serving two seasons as the team's Director of Hockey Administration.

In his position as assistant general manager, Coates works very closely with Flames General Manager Doug Risebrough in the daily hockey operation of the club.

Coates' work involves player contracts, coordinating professional scouting, working with the Flames new development team in Saint John (AHL), as well as coordinating the activity of all players in the Flames organization. He has been performing a myriad of hockey administration tasks for the past number of years.

Al Coates

Following a playing career in Europe, the Listowel, ON native joined the Detroit Red Wings organization in 1971. He spent nine seasons with the Red Wings, working in various capacities, including the 1973-74 season when he served as assistant manager of the London (England) Lions.

In the summer of 1980, he joined the Flames as the team's Director of Public Relations. From day one, the Flames recognized the importance of their responsibility in the city of Calgary and Southern Alberta, and pride themselves on the presence they hold in the community.

In August, 1982, Coates was named as the Assistant to the President, working directly with former Flames President and General Manager Cliff Fletcher in a number of administrative capacities. Later, on August 1, 1989, he was promoted to Director of Hockey Administration.

Al, and his wife Jane, have three children. They reside in Calgary year-round.

HEAD COACH

Dave King will begin his second season as Head Coach of the Calgary Flames. He began his Flames coaching career on May 22, 1992, becoming the fifth head coach in Calgary, and the seventh head coach in franchise history. At the beginning of the 1992 hockey season, Dave received the prestigious Order of Canada Award.

King coached his first game in the National Hockey League on Oct. 6, 1992, and gained his first NHL win on Oct. 8, 1992 against Edmonton. He would go on to post the best record among first-year Calgary coaches after both 20 and 40 games.

Respected as one of the finest coaches in hockey today, King joined the Flames after serving nine seasons (1983-92) with Canada's National Hockey program.

King attained great success during his time with the Canadian National Hockey team. In 1992, he achieved medal success at the Olympic level when he coached Canada to a silver medal at the Winter Games in Albertville, France.

A native of Saskatoon, SK, King began his involvement with the National team in 1983. He first sprang into hockey prominence when he coached Canada to the gold medal at the 1982 World Jr. Championships in Rochester, MN.

In 1982, he served as an assistant coach with Team Canada at the World Championships, helping Canada capture the bronze medal.

Dave King

The following season, he coached Canada's entry in the World Championships in Munich, West Germany.

At the 1984 Winter Olympic Games in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, he guided a young Canadian team to the medal round, finishing fourth overall.

In December, 1987, King directed his Canadian squad to a gold medal at the prestigious Izvestia tournament in Moscow, Soviet Union. It was his second consecutive medal placing at the Izvestia tournament, having captured the silver medal in 1986.

In 1988, at the Calgary Winter Olympic Games, his Canadian team lost only twice during the preliminary and medal rounds (Soviet Union and Finland). Canada finished fourth in the Olympic competition.

King coached Team Canada in a number of World Championships. Working with a make-shift roster, he led the Canadian team to a silver medal at the 1987 World Championships in Stockholm, Sweden. Later, he would guide Team Canada to a fourth place finish at the 1990 world competition in Switzerland.

In 1991, he coached Canada to the silver medal at the worlds in Turku, Finland. He again led the Canadian team at the 1992 World Championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

A career coach, King began his career behind the bench at the U of Saskatchewan in 1972-73. He progressed through the coaching ranks, compiling a pair of Jr. 'B' provincial titles from 1974-76. After a season with the Saskatoon Blades (WHL), he joined the Billings Bighorns (WHL) in 1977 and directed them to the 1978 WHL final while also capturing Coach-of-the-Year honors.

From 1978-83, King returned to coach the U of Saskatchewan, leading the Huskies to three conference championships and one national title (1983). He was named CIAU Coach-of-the-Year in 1980.

Dave, his wife Linda, and their three children reside year-round in Calgary.

ASSISTANT COACH

Guy Charron, widely regarded as one of the game's most innovative coaches, will be returning for his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames.

Charron, 44, joined the Flames prior to the start of the 1990-91 season, after serving five years as assistant general manager/assistant coach with Hockey Canada.

Along with his three seasons as a Flames assistant coach, Charron also served as the club's interim head coach in 1991-92. On Mar. 3, 1992 he assumed the head coaching duties, and directed the team to a 6-7-3 record over the final 16 games of the season.

Charron's involvement and accomplishments in the international hockey arena are lengthy. As a player, he represented Canada in three World Championships (1977-78-79), winning the bronze medal in 1978. The following year, he returned to captain the Canadian entry.

Working with former Hockey Canada head coach Dave King, Charron served as an assistant coach in four Izvestia tournaments, two Spengler Cups, as well as the 1988 Winter Olympic Games in Calgary.

Charron was rewarded for his stellar work with the head coaching position of the 1990 Canadian National Jr. team. In Jan. 1990, in Helsinki, Finland, he led the Canadian Jr. squad to the coveted gold medal.

A native of Verdun, PQ, Charron began his 12-year NHL playing career in 1969 as a member of the Montreal Canadiens. After two seasons in the Canadiens organization, he was dealt to Detroit in the Frank Mahovlich trade.

Following four seasons in Detroit, Charron was off to Kansas City in 1974-75, where he joined the Scouts for their initial NHL campaign. On Sept. 1, 1976, he signed as a free agent with the Washington Capitals.

He would enjoy his greatest playing successes as a Capital. In five seasons with Washington, Charron surpassed the 35-goal mark on two occasions, scoring 36 goals in '76-77 and 38 goals in '77-78. He recorded 70-or-more points in three consecutive seasons from 1976-79. Charron retired from the NHL as a player following the 1980-81 season. In the fall of 1981, he accepted a player/assistant coaching position with Arosa of the Swiss Hockey League, leading the team to the championship title.

Following his stint in Switzerland, Charron served two seasons (1983-85) as general manager and head coach of the Quebec Remparts of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

Guy and his wife Denyse have two children. They reside in Calgary year-round.

Guy Charron

ASSISTANT COACH

Jamie Hislop will be returning for his third season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames. Hislop brings a wealth of technical and fitness knowledge to the coaching staff.

Hislop, 39, joined the Flames coaching staff on Aug. 29, 1991 after spending two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with Salt Lake (IHL), the Flames top development club. Salt Lake (IHL), under the guidance of head coach Bob Francis and assistant Hislop, compiled an 87-64-14 record (.570%) during Hislop's tenure.

Following a college career at the University of New Hampshire, Hislop began his eight-year playing career with the Cincinnati Stingers of the World Hockey Association. Through a series of drafts and trades, he joined the Quebec Nordiques for their initial NHL season (1979-80), and went on to register a 19-goal season while the next year he recorded a 25-goal season (19 Quebec, 6 Calgary).

On Jan. 30, 1981, he was obtained by the Calgary Flames in exchange for goaltender Dan Bouchard. He played 215 career games as a Flame, scoring 37 goals and 98 points (37g, 61a). The 215 games played as a Flame represents Hislop's longest stint with one club.

A two-time Masterton nominee for dedication to the game of hockey, Hislop is renowned for his superb physical conditioning. From the start of his professional career through the beginning of the 1983-84 season, Hislop missed only one contest (524 games) due to injury. That was to end on Dec. 1, 1983 when he was accidentally struck in the eye by an opponent's stick. Following surgery, Hislop returned to play nine games with the Flames, but the injury eventually forced him to retire as a player.

He immediately joined the Flames coaching staff for the 1984-85 season, acting as an assistant coach and special assignment scout. Following the season, he decided to pursue a teaching career.

Jamie, and his wife Laurie, have three children. The Hislops reside in Calgary year-round.

ASSISTANT COACH

Slavomir Lener, a renowned international hockey coach, brings a wealth of teaching ability and innovation to the Flames coaching staff.

A former assistant coach with the Czechoslovakian National and Olympic teams, Lener works with all players in the Flames organization. His innovative coaching and teaching abilities enables the players to become better at the game.

Lener, 38, brings an impressive list of hockey experience to the organization. In 1979, he graduated from Prague's Charles University Faculty of Physical Education and Sports program, where he specialized in hockey.

He coached for seven seasons through various levels in Czechoslovakia, becoming head coach of CLTK Prague of the Czechoslovakian National League in 1984. He held the head coaching position with CLTK for four seasons (1984-88).

Lener served on the coaching staff of three Czechoslovakian National Jr. teams from 1986-89. The Czechoslovakian Jr. team captured the silver medal in 1987 and the bronze medal in 1988.

He joined the Czechoslovakian Olympic team in 1989 and served as an assistant coach for two seasons (1989-91). He was also a member of the coaching staff of Team Czechoslovakia at three World Championships.

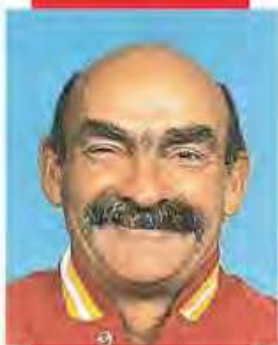

Lener acted as Director of Coaching Education with the Czechoslovakian Ice Hockey Federation for five years. He has participated in hockey seminars and clinics throughout the hockey world, including an assistant coaching position with the University of Calgary (CWUAA) and a guest coaching role with the Canadian Olympic team in 1991-92.

Fluent in four languages, Slavomir and his wife Ivana have three children.

HEAD TRAINER

Jim
"Bearcat"
Murray

The name "Bearcat" Murray has become synonymous with hockey in Calgary. After serving as trainer for various Calgary hockey teams, Bearcat is entering his 14th season with the Flames.

His commitment to the player's safety is legendary. His training methods, conditioning programs, and player preparations make him one of the most respected trainers in the NHL today. No one appreciates him more than the players.

Bearcat's involvement in hockey goes back to his playing days in Estevan, SK and Okotoks, AB. He joined Scotty Munro's Jr. Centennials in Calgary as their head trainer, a position he held for seven years. He went to work with the World Hockey Association's Calgary Cowboys, the Western Hockey League's Calgary Wranglers and briefly with the NY Rangers before joining the Flames in 1980. Bearcat served as the trainer for the Campbell Conference team in the 1985 NHL All-Star game.

Bearcat and his wife Shirley have two sons. They make their year-round home in Calgary, where Bearcat is involved in numerous charity events.

PHYSIO & FITNESS COORDINATOR

Gattinger

James Gattinger is entering his second season as the Flames physiotherapist. Gattinger is responsible for the coordination of fitness testing - both in and off season -, medical services, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

Prior to joining the Flames, Gattinger spent four seasons with Canada's National team, serving as their physiotherapist. He has had extensive international hockey experience, having worked as Team Canada's therapist on the silver-medal winning team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games at Albertville, France.

His international experience also extends to the 1992 World Championships and Spengler Cups in 1986, 1987 and 1988.

A native of Neudorf, SK, Gattinger attended the University of Saskatchewan, graduating with bachelor of science degrees in physical education and physiotherapy. While attending the University of Saskatchewan, Gattinger served as trainer for the Huskies' hockey teams, coached by Dave King. Gattinger also played varsity football in college.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Bobby Stewart, the team's equipment manager, has been a part of two Flames teams. Stewart joined the Atlanta Flames as their equipment manager prior to the start of the 1973-74 season and moved north to Calgary with the franchise in May, 1980. He will be entering his 20th season with the Flames franchise.

As the man in charge of all equipment and supplies for the Flames and many of their affiliated players, Stewart may outfit more than 50 players. During the season, you may find him sharpening skates, ordering sticks, mending pads or making a special adjustment to a piece of equipment that only players appreciate.

Bobby Stewart

Along with servicing the daily needs of the players, Stewart efficiently coordinates the transfer of the team's equipment to other NHL cities during the season. It is a demanding job that requires constant attention and a thorough knowledge of the sporting goods industry.

Born and raised in Montreal, PQ, Bobby worked with the Montreal Jr. Canadiens for six years prior to joining the Flames. The Jr. Canadiens, an affiliate of the Montreal Canadiens, won two Memorial Cups during Stewart's tenure.

Bobby and his wife Sherri have one son. They reside in Calgary year-round.

HALL OF FAME

LANNY McDONALD

On September 21, 1992, Lanny McDonald was inducted into the Hockey Hall-of-Fame, marking the first time this honor has been bestowed upon a Calgary Flame player. It is an honor reserved for those players whose talents, determination, and dedication to the game has allowed them to rise above all others privileged to play in the National Hockey League.

McDonald, one of the most popular players to play in the NHL, currently serves as the Flames Vice-President, Marketing. In his current position, McDonald plays an integral part with the club. He is responsible for developing, implementing and maintaining all areas of the Flames marketing strategy.

McDonald will continue the hard work prevalent during his 16 years in the NHL -- the last seven and a half seasons as a Flame and co-captain of Calgary's 1989 Stanley Cup championship team.

He fashioned a great NHL career that saw him go directly from Medicine Hat (WHL) to the Toronto Maple Leafs in the fall of 1973. He scored 500 goals, 506 assists and 1,006 points in 1,111 games -- all milestone achievements. Twice Lanny was named an NHL Second Team All-Star right winger (1977, 1983), won the Bill Masterton trophy (1982-83), the King Clancy Memorial trophy (1987-88) and was named the NHL Man-of-the-Year in 1988-89.

He holds the Flames record for most goals in a season (66, '82-83), scored 40-or-more goals in six seasons and 30-or-more goals in nine consecutive seasons (1975-84). In the playoffs, McDonald scored 44 goals, including three in overtime, and the go-ahead goal in Calgary's 4-2 Stanley Cup clinching win at Montreal in 1989.

Lanny and his wife Ardell have four children. He is involved in many charities, especially the Special Olympics, Ronald McDonald House, Alberta Children's Hospital, and the Children's Miracle Network Telethon.

GLENN HALL

When the Calgary Flames decided to add a goaltending consultant to the team's coaching staff, they selected one of hockey's all-time greats, Glenn Hall.

Elected to the Hockey Hall-of-Fame in 1975, Hall joined the Flames mid-way through the 1983-84 season. His work with the Flames goaltenders has allowed the team to lower its goals-against-average from 3.91 following the 1982-83 season, to a combined 3.27 over the past five years.

Hall works closely with all the goaltenders in the Flames organization. While offering advice on what to look for in certain situations, he rarely tampers with a goaltender's style.

During an 18-year playing career, Hall was one of the NHL's true superstars, performing with Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis. His all-star play earned him the name "Mr. Goalie". He played at a time when NHL teams carried one goaltender. Between 1955 and 1962 he established an NHL record by playing in 502 consecutive games. It is widely regarded this record will never be broken.

Hall won several honors during his playing days. He was a First Team All-Star seven times, and winner of the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender on three occasions. He was voted the League's top rookie in 1955-56 and was awarded the Conn Smythe trophy in a losing cause as playoff MVP in 1968. He starred for Chicago in 1961, the last time the Blackhawks won the Stanley Cup. In respect for his many accomplishments as a Blackhawk, Chicago retired his jersey in 1988.

Glenn and his wife Pauline make their year-round home in Stoney Plain, Alberta.

GUY LAPOINTE

One of the newest members of the Hockey Hall-of-Fame is Flames scout Guy Lapointe. Lapointe was elected into the Hockey Hall of Fame on May 16, 1993, following a 16-year NHL career with Montreal, St. Louis and Boston.

Lapointe began his NHL career with Montreal in 1970. Through the mid-'70s, Lapointe, along with Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in NHL history.

He played 884 NHL career games, recording 622 career points (171-451-622). Lapointe also appeared in 123 career playoff games.

A member of six Stanley Cup championship teams - all with the Canadiens - Lapointe played 13 of his 16 NHL seasons with Montreal. He represented the Canadiens in four All-Star games, including three consecutive contests from 1975-77.

Lapointe was named to the NHL's First All-Star Team in 1973. He was selected to the NHL's Second All-Star squad on three occasions (1975-77).

Following his retirement as an active player, Lapointe joined the Quebec Nordiques as an assistant coach. After one season with the Nordiques, he was appointed General Manager and Coach of the Longueuil Chevaliers of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

He spent two seasons with Longueuil, leading the Chevaliers to the Quebec Junior Hockey League championship title, and a berth in the 1987 Memorial Cup.

Lapointe returned to the Nordiques as an assistant coach prior to the start of the '87-88 season. He spent the next three seasons as an assistant coach with Quebec, before joining the Flames as a scout in 1990.

Guy and his wife Louise make their year-round home in Quebec City.

FLAMES ALUMNI

PEPLINSKI

The President of the Calgary Flames Alumni, back for a second year term, is former Flame Jim Peplinski.

The Alumni's main objectives are to: a) provide support to fellow alumni members; b) sponsor and encourage a continuing interest in amateur hockey and c) maintain a fund from which donations can be made to worthy charities and organizations.

In their two years of existence, the Alumni has participated in several charitable events of which the most notable were the Kent Hehr Benefit game and Flame/Oiler Alumni game in Red Deer. This past June they played the Calgary Police Association in an exhibition slo-pitch game to benefit the General Hospital Trauma Unit. Just over $70,000.00 has been raised for Calgary and Southern Alberta charities through these events.

Alumni President Jim Peplinski started his NHL playing career on Oct. 9, 1980, the same day the Calgary Flames began their life in the NHL. He retired as an active player on Oct. 31, 1989. Peplinski played 10 seasons and 705 games in the NHL, all with the Flames. He finished his career as the Flames franchise all-time games played leader (705), recording 423 career points (161g, 262a). In 1988, he represented Canada in the Winter Olympic Games in Calgary.

A long-time supporter of community involvement, Peplinski worked tirelessly for those less fortunate. In recognition of his community work, he was awarded a pair of nationally-recognized community awards; the 1988 Ralph T. Scurfield Humanitarian Award and the 1985 Charlie Conacher Memorial Award.

Jim is currently President of Hartfield Auto Leasing. He and his wife Cathy have three children. They reside in Calgary year-round.

The Calgary Flames Alumni took to the diamond at Renfrew Park to play the Calgary Police Association in an exhibition slo-pitch game. An entertaining game saw the Flames win 10-9 with the real winners being the General Hospital Trauma Unit.

SAINT JOHN HEAD COACH

The 1993-94 season will see Bob Francis in his fifth year as head coach of the Flames top development club. After four years in Salt Lake (IHL), the '93-94 season will see the farm team play in Saint John, NB and the American Hockey League.

After apprenticing as the development team's assistant coach for three seasons, Francis was named head coach on June 27, 1989.

In his first year as head coach, Salt Lake finished with a 37-36-9 record. The team advanced to the IHL's semi-final round before falling to Indianapolis, the eventual IHL champions. In 1990-91, the club broke the 100-point mark with a 50-28-5 record (105 points). The 50 wins and 105 points both rank second in Salt Lake's 24-year professional hockey history.

Last season, 1992-93, Salt Lake compiled a 38-39-5 record, despite numerous player movements with Calgary. After the start of the regular season, 30 different player transactions involving Salt Lake took place, underlining the importance of a strong development system. A total of seven different players appeared in both Calgary and Salt Lake uniforms last season.

Following a college career at the University of New Hampshire, Francis began his professional career when he signed as a free agent with Calgary in 1980. He split his first pro season between Muskegon (IHL) and Birmingham (CHL). In 1981-82, while playing with Oklahoma City (CHL), Francis earned the League's MVP and Rookie-of-the-Year awards as well as a spot on the First Team All-Star squad.

In 1982-83, he split the season between Adirondack (AHL) and Detroit. During this season, he played his 14 NHL career games - all with the Red Wings - scoring two goals.

Francis, 34, returned to the Flames organization the following season, playing in Colorado (CHL). After one season, he signed as a free agent with Salt Lake (IHL). Prior to the start of the 1986-87 season, he accepted a player/assistant coach role under head coach Wayne Thomas. He responded by recording 98 points (29g, 69a) and leading the team to a Turner Cup championship.

On July 2, 1987 he announced his retirement as a player, and along with head coach Paul Baxter, formed Salt Lake's (IHL) coaching staff. Baxter and Francis led Salt Lake to their second consecutive IHL title in 1987-88 and returned to the IHL final again in 1988-89 before bowing to Muskegon.

A native of North Battleford, SK, Bob and his wife Deborah have two daughters.

ASSISTANT COACH

On Aug. 12, 1993 the Calgary Flames announced Rick Carriere will join the Saint John coaching staff as an assistant coach.

Carriere, 34, joins Saint John (AHL) after serving two seasons as head coach with the Seibu Bears in the Japanese Elite League.

A native of Edmonton, AB, Carriere joined Seibu (JEL) as head coach prior to the 1991-92 season. Through his teaching and development abilities, he led Seibu from the bottom of the league to a contender for the Elite title.

The level of competition in the Japanese League improved to the point where, for the first time in Japanese hockey history, the Japanese National team will participate in the Olympic qualifying tournament for a chance to compete in the 1994 Winter Olympic Games. Along with Canadian head coaches, the Elite League consisted of coaches from Eastern Europe and Japan.

Following the Japanese '92-93 hockey season, Carriere returned to North America and served as an assistant coach with the Flames top development club in Salt Lake (IHL) during the final month of the '92-93 season.

Carriere played three seasons of junior hockey with Saskatoon

(WHL) from 1976-79. Following his junior career, he joined the Philadelphia Flyers organization, playing in Hampton, VA. Later, a trade to Detroit's organization landed him in Johnstown, PA.

Following his professional career, he returned to play four seasons at the University of Alberta under Golden Bears head coach Clare Drake. While serving as an assistant captain, the Golden Bears captured two (2) Canada West championship titles.

Upon graduation from the University of Alberta, Carriere joined the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) as a physical education instructor. He also served as the assistant hockey coach under the tutelage of coach Perry Pearn, and assumed NAIT's head coaching role during Pearn's various tenures with Canada's National and National Jr. teams. Carriere left NAIT in 1991 to begin coaching in Japan.

FLAMES IN THE COMMUNITY

Since their move to Calgary in 1980, the Flames have recognized their role goes beyond that on the ice surface. They have long valued the support coming from the Calgary community and are committed to give something back in return.

The Flames take an active role and work in the community through both team and player promotions. To that end, the team and players are busy throughout the season. Major team functions include their annual Celebrity Charity Golf Tournament each fall at the Canyon Meadows Golf and Country Club and the Celebrity Charity Dinner each spring. Since their inception, these two premier events have raised in excess of $1 million dollars for designated Calgary charities.

The Flames Ron Stern, Bearcat Murray, Trent Yawney and Gary Roberts, saddle up for the annual Stampede parade.

Countless other dollars are raised each year as the Flames work closely with various community and charitable organizations in assisting their fund raising endeavors for various projects.

Many Flames players are involved with a selected group or charity. This involvement comes from a firm belief in the cause or possibly through a true-life experience. Player involvements are exemplified by Gary Roberts Honorary Co-Chairman for the Alberta Lung Association and Joel Otto, Honorary Chairman for the Calgary Children's Milk Fund.

Chris Dahlquist in action against the Townsend Tigers in the annual Floor Hockey challenge.

The Minor Hockey Association of Calgary is a special partner with the Flames, because all players roots involve a minor hockey career. Support is given through a guest program at each home game, sponsorship during Minor Hockey Week, and donations to the various hockey associations throughout the winter.

The Flames take their role in the community seriously approaching it with a firm commitment to enhance the team's image while providing benefit to the great City they call home.

1993-94 NHL LOOK

The National Hockey League, now entering its 77th season, will have a new look to its regular-season schedule, Stanley Cup playoff format, conference and divisional alignment when its 26 teams begin play this season.

The NHL Board of Governors adopted new names for the conferences, Eastern and Western, and divisions, Northeast, Atlantic, Central and Pacific, which reflect the geographic alignment of the NHL; adopted a regular-season schedule which maintains traditional divisional and geographic rivalries, while also providing for a more balanced distribution of games; and moved to a playoff system based on conference play, with the top eight clubs in each conference qualifying for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

While returning to East-West designations for the conferences, the League will continue to honour the memories of the great builders of the game - Charles F. Adams (Northeast), Lester Patrick (Atlantic), James Norris (Central) and Conn Smythe (Pacific) - with Cups to the regular-season champions of each division in their names. The Prince of Wales Trophy will go to the Eastern Conference playoff champions and the Clarence Campbell Bowl will be awarded to the Western Conference playoff champions.

In the new alignment format there are three changes from the 1992-93 groupings: Winnipeg moves to the Central Division from the Pacific; Tampa Bay moves to the Atlantic Division from the Central; and Pittsburgh moves to the Northeast Division from the Atlantic.

The NHL's two newest member clubs - Anaheim and South Florida - join the Pacific and Atlantic divisions, respectively.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

The NHL's 26 member clubs will each play a total of 82 games, broken down as follows:

WESTERN CONFERENCE - clubs will play six games against each of five divisional opponents (30 games); four games against each of six teams in the other division of their conference (24 games); and two contests against each of the 14 teams in the Eastern Conference (28 games).

EASTERN CONFERENCE - teams will play five games against each of six divisional opponents (30 games); four games against each of seven teams in the other division of their conference (28 games); and two contests versus each of the 12 opponents in the Western Conference (24 games).

PLAYOFF SYSTEM

The League will move to a conference-based playoff system with the 1st place team in the regular-season competing against #8; #2 vs. #7; #3 vs. #6; and #4 vs. #5. The playoff matchups will be based on overall points achieved in the regular-season, with the four division regular-season champions being placed in the first and second place seeds in each conference and being assured of home-ice advantage in the first two playoff rounds.

All series will remain best-of-seven with home-ice rotating on a 2-2-1-1-1 basis, with the exception of matchups between Central and Pacific division teams which would be played on a 2-3-2 basis to reduce travel. In a 2-3-2 series, the team with the most points will have its choice as to whether to start the series at home or on the road.

The Eastern Conference champion will face the Western Conference champion in the Stanley Cup Final.

IT TAKES ONLY ONE GOAL TO WIN THE MOLSON CUP.

TO BE THE BEST.

1992-93 Theoren Fleury

1991-92 Michael Vernon	1988-89 Joe Mullen	1985-86 Hakan Loob	1982-83 Lanny McDonald
1990-91 Theoren Fleury	1987-88 Hakan Loob	1984-85 Rejean Lemelin	1981-82 Pat Riggin
1989-90 Joe Nieuwendyk	1986-87 Joe Mullen	1983-84 Rejean Lemelin	1980-81 Kent Nilsson

Last season, Theoren Fleury became the 13th winner of the Molson Cup, with 100 points. Fleury won 4 of the 6 segments, and overall had 10 first, 5 second and 5 third-star selections. For finishing first he received $1000, which he donated to the Theoren Fleury Foundation. The Molson Cup will again be awarded to the Flames player who receives the greatest number of points from the Three Star selections.
